

Brian F. Keenan

Executive Vice President, Human Resources

Brian F. Keenan is the executive vice president for Human Resources. He has been employed with SAIC since 2000, when he joined the company as the Eastern Region HR director. In 2004, Keenan assumed the role of vice president and director of U.S. HR Operations, a role he served in until accepting his current position in 2007.

As the executive vice president for Human Resources, Keenan works closely with the executive leadership team to create competitive advantage, enable growth and deliver maximum business results through the recruitment and retention of quality employees.

Prior to joining SAIC, Keenan spent more than 15 years at Mobil and ExxonMobil, advancing into Human Resource leadership roles in the U.S. and international upstream and downstream businesses, as well as corporate headquarters.

Keenan holds an MBA from the University of Houston and is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy. He served seven years in the U.S.

Army, which included time spent in the 82nd Airborne Division and the Joint Special Operations Command.

Science Applications International Corporation

1710 SAIC Drive, McLean, VA 22102
703.676.4300 | www.saic.com

