PRABU NATARAJAN

Chief Financial Officer, Executive Vice President Enterprise Operations, and Group President, Civilian Group

Prabu Natarajan Chief Financial Officer, Executive Vice President Enterprise Operations, and Group President, Civilian Group of SAIC. With annual revenues of $7.3 billion and approximately 23,000 employees, SAIC provides engineering, digital, artificial intelligence and mission solutions across the defense, space, civilian and intelligence markets.

Natarajan leads strategy, business development, and delivery across civilian markets, including healthcare, law enforcement, border protection, transportation, federal financial, and state and local. He also oversees all financial activities of the company, and is responsible for business operations, including contracts, procurement, corporate development, corporate strategy, and information technology.

Prior to joining SAIC in January 2021, Natarajan was vice president of financial planning and merger and acquisition for Northrop Grumman and a member of the company's Chief Financial Officer Council. In this role, he was responsible for the development of the company's long-term strategic plan and the Annual Operating Plan, the company's pension and real estate and facilities portfolio, and a range of capital allocation matters including peer benchmarking, financial performance metrics and incentive compensation, while also managing the company's M&A process.

Natarajan was also vice president of Business Management and CFO for Northrop Grumman's $6 billion Information Systems sector. In this role, Natarajan provided leadership and vision for the sector's Business Management function while also responsible for all of the sector's business management activities, including finance, accounting, contracts, pricing, procurement, regulatory and export compliance, and real estate and facilities. for the sector's Business Management function while also responsible for all of the sector's business management activities, including finance, accounting, contracts, pricing, procurement, regulatory and export compliance, and real estate and facilities.

At Northrop Grumman, Natarajan also served as corporate vice president and treasurer for the company, and as vice president, Tax, responsible for tax initiatives across the company.

Before joining Northrop Grumman in 2011, Natarajan held positions at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and senior roles at The AES Corporation.

Natarajan has extensive experience in strategic planning, long range financial and business operations planning, finance and accounting, M&A, and building and managing successful finance organizations.

Natarajan earned his Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Madras, India, and a Masters of Law from Queen's University, Kingston, Canada and Harvard Law School.

Natarajan currently serves on the board of directors for the Wolf Trap Foundation for the Performing Arts and the Northern Virginia Technology Council (NVTC).

12010 Sunset Hills Road
Reston, VA 20190
703.676.4300 | saic.com

SAIC®

© SAIC. All rights reserved